Reminders

- if you haven't registered by now, talk to me (you should have)
- did you look at the admin info download?
- register for the mailing list for announcements
 - (details in admin info)

Wiki Access

- everyone should have accounts now
- some questions about how to use it
 - see the "help" button in the sidebar
 - and if you have hints for others or questions, add them to the help page
 - don't be afraid to explore and try things out
 - experiment on your personal page
 - (click on your account name at the very top next to "my talk")

Homework 1

- Homework 1 was posted
 - small bug: e-mail address was wrong, now fixed
 - see the hw1 discussion page for updates
- unlike most homeworks, it has many due dates
 - look at the instructions carefully and ask if you have questions
 - first due dates were yesterday (for some people)
- hw1 q1 assignments were e-mailed out to most people
 - (those who were registered at the time)
 - rest will go out tomorrow
 - to students who completed the class registration (!)
- hw1 q2 and q3 will go out in the next few weeks

Homework 1 and the Wiki

- after people submit their summaries, they must post them to the wiki
- goals
 - students' views of papers
 - promote discussion about the papers
- everyone should feel free to edit the wiki discussion page of a paper
 - add your views
 - comment (nicely) if you disagree about something

Project A

- first part of Project A will be posted by class Jan. 26
- expect that there will be an addition/revision in a few weeks
- due date will be mid-week after spring break

In-Class Wireless

- DEN says you can use their wireless net
- see me in the break for the WEP key password
- ESSID: DEN WLAN A
